THE FIGHT HAS BEGUN

Boers Are Making Assault on British at Ladysmith.

BOER'S FIRE CEASED.

British Guns Succeed in Silencing Those of the Boers—Boers Advancing on the Left Flank of the British Army.

London, Oct. 30.—Firing commenced at 5 o'clock this morning. The Boers are shelling Ladysmith with 40-pounders. After several shots the British guns succeeded in silencing the Boer fire. A force of Boers are now advancing on the British left flank.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Ladysmith which was sent at express rates, came through in the remarkable time of two hours. It shows the crisis which is presented at this stage of the war and that operations have reached an unexpected attack on Ladysmith by joint Boer forces.

A dispatch from Durban supplements the Associated Press dispatch with the information that the Boer shells are chiefly directed at the station and that no damage had been done up to the time the message from Durban had been forwarded. That the very guns of the Boers from whom the Boers expect so much, will be silenced speedily, is indicated in the Associated Press dispatches from Ladysmith, a matter of great surprise, but the subsequent advance of the burgher's force on the British flank shows that the attackers are in no way dismayed and are still full of the self same confidence and daring they have already exhibited on several occasions.

Apparently the Boers are concentrated for a supreme effort at Ladysmith. They have withdrawn their forces from other points which they consider momentarily to be of less importance. The ease with which they reorganized the German corps which was almost annihilated at Elandslaagte and General Lucas Meyers' column shattered at Talana Hill, show how great their recuperative powers and their fertility of resource. The perseverance of the Boers is shown by the transporting of heavy ordnance and posting it in commanding positions, forced admiration even from their enemies.

Unless the present attack is merely a feint to occupy the British while the invaders are cutting off communication southward, the battle which opened early this morning may fully decide the issue of the war so far as fighting in the open is concerned, for unless the 18,000 or 20,000 Boers about Ladysmith are able to destroy 12,000 British there they can hardly hope to cope with General Buller's army corps, so it may be expected the Boers will return to attack Ladysmith after they are beaten off, so long as they have a gun in position and men willing to face the British, for they must be fully cognizant that the news of their success will bring thousands of sympathizers and adventurers to their standard.

Active operations the last few days have shown the cavalry under modern conditions and armed with long range weapons are in an entirely new light, proving them able to work as infantry both alone and in conjunction with foot soldiers. These cavalrymen have shown themselves able to hold infantry positions against mounted positions, which under previous conditions they have been forced to relinquish while the assault on Elandslaagte was led by dismounted cavalry.

The latest news from the western border apparently reassured British authorities as to their ability at Mafeking and Kimberley to withstand assaults.

A dispatch from Fort Tulia, forwarded during the evening of Oct. 24, announces that Blackburn's force in a skirmish at Rhodes drift killed 12 Boers. A Kaffir spy reported many more Boers lying in the drift dying. Blackburn died of his wounds on returning to Fort Tuli.

Reports say the Boers are concentrating on the Rhodesian border with Maxims.

CLOSING ON LADYSMITH.

The Boers Are Evidently Trying to Repeat Tactics Used at Dundee.

London, Oct 30. — The situation at Ladysmith without being alarming, is sufficiently dangerous to excite anxiety. Evidently the Boers are trying to repeat the Dundee tactics. Roughly estimated, they have 17,000 men as against 12,000 British. The delay in the Boer attack is reported to be due to the non arrival of Commandant General Joubert's column. This has given the British a much needed respite for their recent exertions. Everything it is now considered hangs upon General White's resources and judgment. Nothing is known regarding the progress of defensive works for the protection of Ladysmith. The censorship is more active than ever.

The attempt of the Boers to cut the railway at Pete Pieters was frustrated by the British cavalry.

The wife of General Kock has arrived at Ladysmith under a flag of truce to nurse her wounded husband. All the unwounded Boer prisoners have been sent to Durban to prevent any attempt at rescue.

The explanation of the alleged Boer massacre at Dundee appears to be that a portion of the town guard, although fairly warned by General Yule before his retirement, continued to carry arms and 30 of them were shot before the Boers discovered who they were.

The body of Sir William Penn Symons was buried without a coffin, shrouded in a union jack. Among the papers found on his person was a telegram from Lady Symons congratulating him on his success.

Later reports of the first battle and evacuation of Dundee do not give these affairs a rosier hue. When the Boers entered Dundee they indulged in general looting of stores, but apparently did not otherwise molest the populace.

In the first battle the Boers captured a Maxim gun of the Eighteenth hussars, but only after the entire crew of the gun, with one exception, were disabled. The survivor effectually damaged the gun. Only two officers on the staff of General Symons came off without a wound.

According to the latest reports from Cape Town, General Joubert has joined hands with the Free State forces and there has been some outpost fighting. President Kruger has arrived at Glencoe.

There is no fresh news from the western frontier. The mines are working at Kimberley, where there are provisions enough to last nine months. Cecil Rhodes has mounted and fully equipped a town guard of 400 men at a cost of $75,000.

THE FIRST ATTACK.

Boers Preliminary Assault on Ladysmith Ceased Friday Night.

New York, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to The Herald from London says the Daily Telegraph publishes dispatches from its special correspondent in Natal, Bennet Burleigh, as follows:

"The interchange of shots between the pickets of both forces ceased at Ladysmith Friday at sunset. The Boers show extraordinary keeness in their endeavors to entrap our scouts. General French's force, cosisting of five battalions of infantry, six battalions of artillery and a considerable number of cavalry, bivouaced Friday night at Mount Bulwan. They were unmolested by the enemy, who retained a position upon rough, low Kopje. Arrangements had been made to assault the Boer's position, but these were negativated in the morning, our patrols finding the Boers had gathered in strength. Moving to the north of the enemy on this side of Matawans Hook, our scouts became visible from the high grove overlooking Ladysmith, at a distance of four miles away and they were fired upon. Since then cannon and cavalry rifle shots have been constantly interchanged. Large bodies of Boers have been seen south of Tintwa Yona. The enemy apparently still retained their positions on Saturday lying to northeast and west of Ladysmith. Free State Boers appear to have moved most of their force near the scene of Tuesday's action at Hatawans Hook. Probably six or seven thousand of them are there with guns. Relatively few Boers are left guarding Drakensburg Pass.

McKinley Registered.

Canton, O., Oct. 30.—President McKinley came near losing his vote this year, owing to the fact that he did not know just where he lived. Last week his affidavit for registration reached here. He swore that his home was now on North Market street, at the place he recently purchased, but he did not state the house number. This constituted a flaw in the affidavit, and it could not be honored. The secretary of the city board of elections, however, sent it back to the president and told him what number the house was. McKinley fixed it up and returned it Saturday, the last registration day. The document was given to the registrars and they placed his name on the poll books.

Treasury Statement for October.

Washington, Oct. 30.—A surplus of nearly $3,000,000 will be shown in the treasury statement of receipts and expenditures for October. This is a good showing for the first month of a new quarter, when the payments for pensions exceed $10,000,000. The anticipation of interest payments to relieve the money stringency is also set off against the surplus, perhaps to the extent of a couple of millon dollars, but the financial condition of the government is in all respects most gratifying.

Traces of Spanish Mines.

Guthrie, O. T., Oct. 30.—Prospectors who have been putting down holes in the rough hills near Sacred Heart in the southern part of Pottawattomie county, have found traces of Spanish mines, also tools, pottery and ore ovens, in several of which were lumps of pure copper, which had been secured from ore taken from the hills. One strata of rock found assays 25 per cent copper and there is much excitement over the find.

Hospital Ship Solace to Sail.

She will bring the invalid and discharged men from the Philippines. Of the transports now here the Ben Mohn is scheduled to leave Nov. 1, Senator on Nov. 3, Pathan on Nov. 5, Hancock on Nov. 6 and Duke Fife Nov. 10.

Shakespeare Club.

Another pleasant evening with Shakespeare was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis on last Saturday evening. The president called the club to order promptly at 8 o'clock and the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting.

The program consisted of the following.

Philip Massinger—Mrs. L. L. McInnis.

John Ford—Mr. J. R. Astin.

Ben Jonson—Mr. Connelly.

Owing to the fact that Saturday is an inconvenient night for many of the members to attend, the motion was made, seconded and duly carried that the club should meet hereafter on Friday nights.

Since the excursion to the San Antonia carnival next Friday interferes with the weekly meeting the president appointed a meeting this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McInnis.

The program is as follows.

Shakespeare—Miss Shepard.

Leading Actors—Mrs. J. K. Davis.

Leading Critics—Miss Fletcher.

NOT CHURCH DOCTRINE.

Prof. McGiffert May Have to Stand Trial Before New York Presbytery.

New York, Oct. 30.—Failure has met the efforts of the committee appointed by the New York presbytery to induce Prof. Arthur C. McGiffort of the Union seminary to quietly resign from the Presbyterian ministery. At the final meeting of the committee it was decided to make a report to the presbytery at its next meeting on Nov. 13. An opinion in Presbyterian circles is general that with the decision of Prof. McGiffort not to withdraw the trial of another Union seminary for heresy will be difficult to avoid. The committee will report to the presbytery that Prof. McGiffert's views are not in accord with the cardinal doctrines of the church and will reccommend that the presbytery refer the case to the general assembly of next May for more definite instructions.

It is not certain that the presbytery will accept the recommendation of its committee to refer the case back to the general assembly as it is quite within its power to order a trial of Prof. McGiffert on its own responsibility. Presbyterian opinion is general, however, that for the presbytery to proceed at once with a trial would invite criticism.

Prof. McGiffert and the members of the committee refuse to discuss the controversy for publication.

ROW IN INDIANA.

Street Fight Between a Tennessee Colony and Some Citizens.

North Salem, Ind., Oct. 30.—A desperate street fight between members of a Tennessee colony, recently located here, and some citizens, resulted in the instant death of William McKey a Tennessean, the fatal wounding of William Ragan, a druggist of North Salem, and minor injuries for many others.

Trouble has been brewing for some time and it came to blows in a row in Ragan's saloon. The proprietor tried to quell the disturbance but found he was helpless. He ran behind the counter, secured two revolvers and opened fire. Instantly pistols were drawn by everybody and the fight spread out into the street where it became general.

Women fainted and unarmed persons in the vicinity of the battle sought shelter. More than 25 shots were fired, but no one can or will tell who fired the fatal shots.

The town is quiet, but the Tennesseeans are vowing vengeance and the citizens are organizing and arming for an attack.

FOUGHT CANNIBALS.

Captain Mohun Lost Nine Men and Killed Three Hundred of His Assaulters.

London, Oct. 30.—Mail advices from Congo announces that Captain Mohun, formerly United States consul at Zanzibar, who was cemmanding the Belgian Tanganyika-Congo telegraph expedition, reached Congo Free State and engaged in a fierce battle at Zanguli, where his force consisted of 10 Europeans. Shortly after the attack commenced Baron D'Hamis, the Belgian commander, dispatched three companies of soldiers to assist Mohun, and the enemy, consisting of cannibals, who horribly torture their wounded, were finally routed. Captain Mohun did great execution with Winchester repeaters. It is estimated the enemy which numbered 1500, had 300 killed, and the 600 Belgian force lost 9 men killed and 47 wounded. The enemy fled to Tanganyika.

Dwight Townsend Dead.

New York, Oct. 30.—Dwight Townsend died suddenly Sunday night at his home in this city, aged 53 years. Nearly 40 years ago he founded with Frederick C. Havemeyer, the famous sugar refining firm of Havemeyer, Townsend & Co., now Havemeyer & Elder. In 1865 he was elected as a Democrat from the First congressional district of this city to the Thirty-ninth congress. He was a member of the ways and means committee although he was the youngest member of the house. He was elected again to the Forty-third congress from the same district. Mr. Townsend went again into business as the president of the Greer-Turner Sugar Refining company. This house with 13 others failed in 1876, owing to the preliminary formation of the sugar trust, and as a result Mr. Townsend lost all his fortune. In the early eighties, Mr. Townsend once more resumed an active business life as president of the United Lines Telegraph company, and was associated with John W. Mackay and Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll in the formation of the Postal Telegraph company.

Jester Pleads Not Guilty.

Paris, Mo., Oct. 30.—Alexander Jester pleaded not guilty to the indictment for murder in the first degree, returned against him by the grand jury and in the presence of the court affixed his signature to an affidavit alleging that he could not secure an impartial trial in Monroe and Marion counties, on account of the alleged prejudice against him. The application for a change of venue was not filed, as it was not supported by the necessary affidavits of two disinterested citizens. Friday, Nov. 3, was named by Judge Eby as the day on which he would hear the arguments for and against the proposed change of venue. The defense also filed a motion for the dismissal of the case against Jester, on the ground that the circuit court of Monroe county had no jurisdiction in the case, and cited the court to the records of the case in 1871. This motion was taken under advisement. The extreme age and feeble condition of the prisoner, and his close confinement in jail, have created the impression that unless he has a speedy trial he will not live to see his case finally disposed of.

Mexico Loses Land.

Austin, Oct. 30.—An unprecedented rainfall along the Mexican border during the past few days has caused another great flood in the lower Rio Grande. The river has already changed its course at many points above Brownville in its present big rise. At one place in Hidalgo county the river straightened one of its bends, throwing a large tract of land from Mexico into the United States. The international water boundary commission will have a number of important disputes as to boundary to settle when the river subsides. Thousands of acres of cultivated valley lands along the lower course of the river are overflowed.

Made No Such Proposition.

St. Louis, Oct. 30.—Colonel Nicholas Bell, ex-superintendent of foreign mail service, has returned from Washington. He said to the Associated Press: "The story floating around to the effect that I, by the authority of some member of the National Democratic committee, tendered to Admiral Schley the nomination for the office of vice president of the United States, is a pure fabrication. The committee certainly has no such authority individually or collectively. The convention will attend to that."

Glenogle Reaches Manila.

Funeral Sophia.

"One of the strangest female characters that our section of Pennsylvania ever produced has just been taken to the county almshouse," said a Reading man the other day. "Her name is Sophia Christian, and she commonly went by the name of "Funeral Sophia," owing to her mania for attending funerals. She never missed one, and by reading the newspapers kept informed on all in the locality, so that she often attended three or four in the same day. It is estimated that within thirty years she must have witnessed 6,000 funerals. Sophia's long suit was to get up in the part of the church where the relative of the deceased sat and she mingled her tears with theirs as though the departed were near and dear to her. She would scale a high back fence to get into a house of mourning if denied access in front. It was a cold day too, when she didn't get into a carriage bound for the cemetery, and the nearer the hearse the better she was pleased. After the ceremonies at the grave her usual programme was to return with the family of the deceased, and if near the dinner hour she would be a self-invited guest. The official that got her to the almshouse used strategy by telling her that a funeral was on hand and that an elaborate dinner was to follow."

Break Up of Greater Britain.

England is going slowly but surely toward a disintegration of the elements which make up her immense colonial empire. She cannot prevent Australia, Canada and the Cape from shaking off the yoke of the mother country and declaring themselves, if not entirely independent, at least sufficiently so to follow a direction opposed to the "Greater England" policy of Mr. Chamberlain, who dreams of uniting the colonies to the mother country by ties he will find it difficult to secure.—Paris La Patrie.

YOUNG HANDICAPPED.

Has Many Difficulties in His Advance upon Cabantuan.

SHORT ON RATIONS.

Insurgents Destroyed the Bridges over Rivers and Deep Ravines, and Left an Impoverished Country Behind Them.

Manila, Oct. 30.—General Young is advancing upon Cabantuan under difficulties. The country is furrowed with rivers and deep ravines, the bridges over which have been destroyed, the mud is deep, rations are short and the transportation of supplies has been delayed by low water and the poor condition of the roads. There are sufficient stores however, to keep the brigade. The insurgents for a long time have lived off the country improverishing it. The American horses are not yet accustomed to the native grass and a long bullock train has left San Fernando, carrying hay for the cavalry. The Spaniards report that there are no insurgents at Cabantuan.

The gunboat Laguna de Bay dispersed a force of rebels who were engaged in constructing trenches beyond Santa Rosa. The boat was fired upon by a party of insurgents bearing a white flag. She is now aground.

Numbers of Chinese are coming to Angeles from Tarlac, paying the insurgents for the privilege. It is reported that Aguinaldo and the Filipino congress are still at Tarlac. There are about 500 insurgents before Angeles. They have been quiet for the past week. Two thousand rebels are at Bamban, five miles to the north.

General Bates has been recalled from San Fernando and ordered to sail for the southern islands as soon as possible

Smallpox at Wharton.

Houston, Oct. 30. — Dr. Blunt, state health officer, has arrived here from Wharton. He had been out there to look after some smallpox cases. He found 40 cases in and about Wharton and he fully convinced the people that it was genuine smallpox. He also states that there are a couple of cases in Richmond, but they are isolated, and there will be any spread of it.

Smallpox in the Bottoms.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 30.—Bert Browne, a former deputy marshal of the Paris Federal court, in this city, on the way to Paul's Valley to attend court, reports that smallpox is scattered through Potean and Arkansas river bottoms.

Rev. Speer Dead.

Athens, Ga., Oct. 30.—Rev. Willoughby Speer, D. D., father of Judge Emory Speer of the United States court for the Seventh district of Georgia, and was for eight years professor of belles lettres and English literature at the state university. After his retirement from the university he studied law and was appointed by Justice Woods as master in chancery for the United States courts, which position he has since held. Old age was the cause of Dr. Speer's death.

Killed by Moonshiners.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 30—W. H. Grer, United States deputy revenue collector, was shot by Bill Hunnicut, a noted moonshiner, and died near Elk Park, N. C. Deputy Sheriff Witt was fatally shot by Hunnicut when an attempt at arrest was made. Hunnicut has killed five men. He has fortified himself in a rock bluff on Iron mountain.

Hurricane at Santiago.

Santiago, Cuba, Oct. 30.—After five days of continuous rainstorms, a terrific hurricane from the southeast swept over Santiago Sunday, causing much destruction. Twelve houses were wrecked and others badly damaged. The unprecedented rainfall continues. Telegraph wires are down, and it is impossible for vessels to enter or leave the harbor.

Twentieth Kansas Regiment.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 30. — Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception to be accorded the Twentieth Kansas regiment which is due here next Thursday from San Francisco. Excursion trains are to be run into Topeka from all points and over 40,000 visitors are expected in the city.

Negotiations for a New Treaty.

Washington, Oct. 30. — An understanding has been reached by which it is expected negotiations will soon be opened at Madrid for a new treaty between the United States and Spain. This will be the last step toward completely restoring the friendly relations between the two countries.

Work on the Caney Valley.

Wharton, Tex., Oct. 28.—The material for the Caney Valley Southern Pacific extension has begun to arrive. The second new road, the Caney Belt, has been donated right of way, depot grounds and a cash bonus. The line is within six miles of town.

Sheep Cremated.

Kansas City, Oct. 30.—The sheep pens at the stockyards, covering an entire block, were destroyed by fire Saturday night, 600 head of sheep being cremated. Four firemen were seriously injured by falling walls, and one of them, Charles Peterson, may die.

Case of Scarlet Fever.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 30.—Another case of scarlet fever is reported by City Physician Clark, making four in all.

GOING TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Schley Will Take His Little Squadron to the Seat of War.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The south Atlantic squadron has been ordered or soon will be ordered to the scene of the South African hostilities. It is the second great development of this country's standpoint in the European crisis and, strangely enough, follows the notification by Great Britian of Germany's proposition for the partition of the Samoangroup.

The attitude of this country—one of hostility to the German proposition and and German pretentions as to Samoa—cannot fail to be regarded of great significance. The European concert evidently desirous of getting a practical illustration of this country's attitude, is credited with having impelled Germany to make the first test. The United States has demonstrated her friendliness to Great Britain thus verifying the predictions that the United States would maintain the status quo in Samoa.

"Yes," said Secretary Long, in response to a question, "Rear Admiral Schley will be ordered to east African waters. The squadron will be increased to whatever extent the situation demands. I do not think that a larger squadron than the Chicago, the Montgomery and Wilmington is necessary, but as I have said there may be contingencies which would make it advisable to largely add to these vessels."

It is the understanding that if any of of the larger ships be sent it will be the Texas. The Chicago, Montgomery, Wilmington and Texas, four or five of the smaller cruisers would constitute a representative squadron.

The feeling at the navy department that it would be well to have a large American squadron cruising off East Africa is a growth of the last few days. It is undoubtedly based on the news obtained in Washington and from Europe that contingencies may arise in the progress of the war in the Transvaal, which would make the presence of a larger body of sailors and marines a necessity in that neighborhood.

SAMOAN CLAIMS.

Authorities Believe the United States Should Pay No Damages.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Some progress is being made in the negotiations between the three governments signatory to the Berlin treaty looking to the settlement of Samoan claims. The character of the settlement cannot be stated at this time, but it can be said with authority that the president has no intention of agreeing to any proposition whereby the United States will contribute an equal share with Germany and Great Britain to satisfy the claims. The authorities are of the opinion that this government should not pay one cent toward settlement of the claims. This opinion is based on the principle that while an American ship committed the damage which created the claims, yet the cause of her act was the conduct of German officials in exciting the natives to armed resistance.

The claims of Americans and natives who have submitted their accounts to this government are small when compared with those filed by subjects of Germany and Great Britain, and it would be manifestly unjust, the officials say, for this government to enter into an agreement to contribute a sum equal to that given by Germany and Great Britain for the settlement of the claims.

It is not expected that another commission will be appointed to consider the claims, but that an greement will be reached by the three governments.

OUR CHINA TRADE.

The Interest of Americans Will Be Upheld No Matter What Settlement.

Washington, Oct. 30.— President McKinley is expected to renew in his forthcoming message his recommendation that an appropriation be made for a commission to investigate the commercial and industrial conditions of the Chinese empire. No radical change in the policy of the United States with respect to China is contemplated by the president. It is proposed to safeguard American interests in every way. No discriminating treatment of American citizens or American trade will be permitted for an instant, and undoubtedly the inauguration of the exclusion policy on the part of foreign governments of possession of spheres of influence in China, will be bitterly opposed by this government. However, such a contingency as the latter is not expected. It has been stated that the strong reinforcement of Rear Admiral Watson's command is with a view of making the United States an important factor in the Asiastic situation.

An official said that the vessels added to Rear Admiral Watson's force were assigned to it upon the express recommendation of Admiral Dewey for the effect it would have upon the insurrection in the preparations, and had no reference to China. As soon as the insurrection is quelled it is the intention of the department, unless further developments should arise, to withdraw the larger ships, though the two monitors Monadnock and Monterey will remain at Manila as a naval guard for that city.

Favorable to Arbitration.

New York, Oct. 30. — The Herald's correspondent in Rio de Janeiro sends word that a bill has been presented in the chamber of deputies authorizing the government to conclude arbitration treaties with all the South American countries. The Argentine chamber of deputies has adopted the government's conversion bill.
